

Educate Diplomats! Write about the history of US relations with Latin America

Project Title	Educate Diplomats! Write about the history of US relations with Latin America
Project Summary	Research and analyze the history of U.S. relations with countries in the Western Hemisphere.
Country	United States
Country/Region of Focus	Latin America and the Caribbean

Project Description

The Office of the Historian provides historical analysis to Department of State employees in Washington and overseas based on the current policy needs of the Department. The VSFS student in this position will execute both short- and long-term projects on the history of U.S. relations with countries in the Western Hemisphere. This could include research in primary documents, building timelines of U.S. relations with specific countries, creating topical reading lists of secondary literature, and other tasks as assigned and based on your interests. In your application, please be sure to describe your experience with primary source research, secondary source research, and analytical or historical writing.

Required Skills or Interests

- Skill(s)
  - Analytical writing
  - Editing and proofreading
  - Research
  - Writing

Additional Information

We're looking for applicants who can communicate in their applications that they are familiar with modern

Latin American and U.S. history. They should also have strong critical thinking skills; a clear writing style; the ability to conduct online and library research; ability to analyze information and make historical arguments; and familiarity with how to cite their work.

Language Requirements

Language	Speaking Proficiency	Reading Proficiency	Importance
Spanish	No practical proficiency	Elementary proficiency	Nice to Have
French	No practical proficiency	Elementary proficiency	Nice to Have
Portuguese	No practical proficiency	Elementary proficiency	Nice to Have